Turandot by Giacomo Puccini

China's cold-hearted Princess Turandot is not your average royal. Desired by all men and wanting none, she builds a wall of riddles around her heart to keep love away. Challenging every red-blooded suitor to a game of wits, she asks them a series of riddles to win her love... or fail and die. Enter Calaf, who not only solves all three, he proposes his own and puts his life in the hands of the icy princess.

Based on an ancient Chinese fable, Turandot is a masterpiece of romance and spectacle. Puccini saves his most adventurous and uplifting music for this, his last opera, including a massive chorus and the famous aria "Nessun dorma" that has been sung and recorded by great artists from Pavarotti to Aretha Franklin. Starring the world's premiere interpreter of the role of Turandot, Lise Lindstrom.

The approximate run time is 2 hours and 45 minutes with two intermissions.

See the cast and chorus in spectacular costumes, and watch the backstage set transformations. And as with all San Diego Opera productions, English translations projected above the stage let you follow every detail of the action. The audience will be invited to see the entire opera. Student Night at the Opera provides students access to the final dress rehearsal of a main stage production. The afternoon on the day of the performance, a docent from the San Diego Opera will come to Diegueno and give a presentation on the ABCs of opera during CAT in Room F-3. The docent will use a variety of techniques to bring the opera to life for your students. This is a special event that brings history, language arts, drama/theatre arts, music arts and visual arts learning to life. It should be an exciting cultural enrichment activity you will not forget.

PLEASE SEE MS. COLLINS IN ROOM F-3 FOR PERMISSION SLIPS. Please return slips by January 29th.
